Dear Editors of the Journal of Macroeconomics:

I am writing you to request that you consider my paper, "Fiscal Policy Uncertainty and Its Macroeconomic Consequences," for your journal. I believe that this paper fits well with your aims and scopes. The paper constructs a new measure of uncertainty regarding fiscal policy in the United States and it presents empirical evidence for the consequences fiscal uncertainty has on macroeconomic outcomes including real GDP, consumption, investment, employment, and inflation.

Thank you for giving this paper your consideration. You may contact me at jmurray@uwlax.edu if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

James Murray, Ph.D
Associate Professor
